HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Totsl	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of commuuicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

1. That the federal government is limited in power to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the government and the safety of the people, and the democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

2. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the radical members of the last legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty and an outrage upon every citizen of the State, and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed and the amendment submitted to the people at the polls for acceptance or rejection.

3. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

4. That reform in the administration of the federal and State governments, and in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

5. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the condition of the laboring man has our most cordial co-operation.

6. That the legislation of the late republican Congress "outside of the Constitution," the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and sanctity of the ballot box, in the exclusion from their seats in Congress of representatives clearly elected, the establishment of military governments in States in the Union and the overthrow of all civil governments therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

7. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all the guaranties given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example an encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights.

9. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the general government is grossly unjust, and means ought at once to be adopted to cause a modification thereof.

The report was accepted and unanimously adopted.

NEVER TRAVELED.—A story is told of an old lady who lived near Rochester, who had never seen or traveled on a railroad. Wanting to go on a visit to a small town a short distance from the city, she thought she would try one of the pesky things. She went to the ticket office, carrying her reticule on one arm and an old-fashioned rocking chair on the other. She bought her ticket, walked out on the platform, put down her rocking chair, sat down in it, took out her knitting, and went to work diligently. Steadily she rocked and worked, trains coming in or leaving as the car time came around. The old lady made no attempt to get on the cars, but kept knitting.

The day drew to a close, and night came on. The last train was about starting, when the depot master went up and asked her if she was going out.

"Yes, sir," replied the lady.

"Hadn't you better go on broad and secure a seat?" said the depot master.

"Thank you, sir, I'm very comfortable," replied the elderly dame.

The train left. The master came around again.

"Madam, I shall have to disturb you; it is getting late; the trains have all left, and we must close the depot. Shall I send you to a hotel?"

"Well!" exclaimed the old lady, dropping her knitting and holding up her hands, "ain't the thing going to move? Here I brought my chair from home so as to have a seat, on which some pesky man could't squeeze himself. I've set here all day waitin' for the thing to go, and here I've had all my trouble for nothing. I thought it was a long time moving. I declare that these here railroads is the biggest nuisance and humbug as ever was!" and the old lady, with bag on one arm and rocking chair on the other, gave a toss of her head and marched off in high indignation.

A traveler in Pennsylvania last summer asked his landlord if he had any cases of sunstroke in that town. "No, sir," said the landlord, "If a man gets drunk here we say he is drunk, and never call it by any other name."

A lady was urged by her friends to marry a widower, and as an argument they spoke of his two beautiful children. "Children," replied the lady, "are like toothpicks. A person wants her own."

On account of its roasting propensities the Chicago Times thinks the Erie railroad should be known as the Erie gridiron.

An Austrian editor has been fined for telling lies about Andrew Johnson. What would become of all the radical editors if that was the rule in this country.

JOSH, JEMIMA, AND THE WOLVES.

Josh Staver loved Jemima Pineapple. Loved her, did I say? Love was no name for it. Whenever he saw her, his heart bounded so violently that he was thrown to the ground. Cold chills would run all over him, as he expressed it, "from the sole of his head to the crown of his foot." Jemima was pretty to Josh; her hair, "red as the sea," large eyes, which had the faculty of looking ways opposite each other at the same time, and a nose which looked as if it had been lengthened by the addition of several others.

Now Josh had never escorted Jemima home, for she lived two miles from Fleasburg. She came to meetin' every Sabbath night, and would walk across the fields alone, not in the least afraid of the wild beasts which at that time infested the country. But one night our hero resolved to bear the dasmal company, and accordingly prepared for his noctunral company. He got his grandfather's horse-pistol and loaded it to the muzzle, and thrust a large buthcher knife in his bosom, which didn't hurt him much, for it was the the bosom of his coat. A lantern completed his "fixings."

The meeting closed, and Joshua, with Jemima leaning on his arm, like a large gourd hanging from a tall vine, set out for the Pineapple mansion.

"We are in the woods, now, Jemima," said Josh, as he assisted hsi partner over the fence of the last field, "and now comes the tug of war. I'll bet a dime that these woods are full of wolves."

"I think they will not attack us; but if they do, oh, Joshua, on thy arm I will recline, and breathe my life out sweetly there." And she gave such a sigh that Josh started, thinking it the half-smothered growl of a bear.

"What is the matter, Josh?"

"Oh, nothing." And gaining new courage at the sound of Jemima's voice, he squeezed her arm till she nearly screamed aloud.

Suddenly a cry echoed through the woods.

"Wolves!" shouted Josh.

"Bears!" re-echoed his partner.

"Come, Jemima, let us git." And they got.

Through the woods they went, Josh really dragging Jemima along. The foe was approaching, the couple could hear his footsteps in the leaves, for they had wandered from the path.

"Josh, I can't go any further; we must 'tree it,'" said Jemima, as she paused for breath.

"By gosh, we must. Here is a tree with limbs nigh hanging on the ground. Climb it, Jemima! Here I go. Gods! If the animal climbs the tree, what then?" and with a bound the terrified Josh climbed up the tree, leaving Jemima to follow him or be devoured by the terrible pursuer a few feet in their wake.

But Jemima was an old climber, and was soon beside Josh, who sat perched on one of the highest branches of the tree.

"Listen Jemima, here the horrible thing gnawing at the tree. It's wolves, surer'n shootin. They will gnaw the tree down in half an hour."

"I fear so, Joshua."

"But hold, Jemima, I've got a pistol!" said our hero, thinking for the first time that night of his weapon, pointed it down through the branches were their pursuer was pawing among the leaves, and fired. It was a destructive shot, and Josh went springing through the air like greased lightning. He had loaded his pistol so heavily that it kicked him from his perch into the jaws of the animal below. But fortunately he alighted on his feet, and in an instant he was again in the tree, hatless, his red locks catching in the branches, which cruelly tore them from his head.

"I was a durned fool, Jemima, to have loaded that pistol so heavily, and it kicked me right into the wolves' mouths; but thank Moses, I escaped. Just feel my head."

Jemima placed her hand upon Josh's cranium, and withdrew it, wet with gore.

"That is my blood shed for you, Jemima, and I am willing to shed more, dogoned if I ain't."

"Can the wolves climb?"

"Climb like rabbits, Jemima; and every minute I am looking to see them come up here. I do believe my shot killed half a dozen of them. Listen at them gnawing. If we could only keep them gnawing at something else beside the tree till daylight, we would be safe."

"May be they are like bears, Joshua; they will eat anything you throw at them."

"Well, I'll try them; so first here goes my boots," and taking off his fine boots, Josh groped his way out on a limb.

"Farewell, dear boots, bran new ones, cost eight dollars this blessed morning. Farewell, I sacrifice you to Jemima," and the splendid boots were soon gone.

For a while the animal ceased gnawing the tree, and gnawed the boots, Josh cursing inwardly the while. At last the gnawing re-commenced.—"Blast him! he ain't satisfied with eight dollars worth of leather, so I'll have to give him seventeen dollars worth of cloth," and away went his coat; it was soon afterward followed by his vest and stockings, and Josh declared his "unmentionable" raiment would follow the rest, at which declaration Jemima blushed, and said:

"Oh! Joshua."

"Blast if I don't, Jemima." He spoke determinedly and would no doubt make his word good.

But the vest satisfied the animal beneath the tree, and a few hours later, morning dawned. The lovers, for such they were now, descended from the tree, when lo! to their astonishment they beheld Jemima's pet calf which followed them, and not the wolves. The gnawing they heard, was the harmless animal chewing at some undergrowth which lay plentifully around. Josh's eyes filled with tears as he looked around. There lay his boots, but in a somewhat damaged condition—here the coat and vest partly chewed up.

They said nothing, but proceeded to the Pineapple mansion, where they told a doleful story about being treed by wolves; how Joshua had sacrificed his clothes to save their lives; how he had slaughtered forty of the ravenous animals, &c., &c.

Old Pineapple said such bravery and devotion should not go unrewarded, and placing Jemima's hand in Josh's, told him to take her as his mate. They were married, and now live in a little hut with one room and a garret, near Fleasburg, now a flourishing "burg" on Turtle creek.

N. B.—Jemima's pet calf was never seen after the night it treed the devoted couple. We rather guess it wasn't.

[From the El Paso (Ill.) Journal.]

ONSLAUGHT ON A COUNTRY EDITOR IN ILLINOIS; HE HAS A PROLONGED DEBATE ON THE WOMAN QUESTION.

I was sittin' in my office, speculatin' in my own mind whether on the whole it wouldn't be best for me to give myself away for the benefit of my family, when there comes a knock at the door.

There, says I, is some one anxious to subscribe, for the the El Paso Journal, so I uttered in a loud voice, "Come in."

She was dressed in a pair of store boots and an iron grey set of spectacles, and she walked up to me with majesty in her mein. I knew who it was the minute I set my eyes on her.

It was a woman.

I gracefully arose and said, "How are you maam, was you wishin' to subscribe to the El Paso Journal?" at the same time dippin' my pen in the ink and openin' my subscription book. This alwuz gets 'em. It looks like biziness.

I didn't get her.

She fixed her glassy eyes on me and said: "Young man, are yew an advocate for the holy caws of woman's rights?"

"No maam," said I, "I am a Presbyterian."

"Air you," she said, "prepared to embark with us over the see with equal suffrage?"

"Maam," said I, "I haint got no objection takin' a sail with you provided the boat ain't leaky and you'll do the rowin'."

A smile perused her features for a moment and then she said, "I'm willin' to suffer for the caws."

"Yes," said I, in a polite and softenin' manner. "It'll only cost two dollars, and we'll send it to any address for an entire year."

"Hev you a wife?" she asked.

"I hev," said I, wonderin' what she was comin' at. "So that you see I couldn't marry you ef I wanted to ever so much." I threw this in as a a soother.

"Air you willin' that she should share with you the burdens and trials of life?"

"I ain't noways perticklar, said I, "an' I'll let her shoulder the whole of em ef she has a hankerin' that way?"

"Wood yew consent that she should go to the poles?" said she.

"She can go where she pleases," said I, "She ginerally does."

"Yew air a hole souled man" said she and throwin' her arms around my neck laft wildly.

"Git out," said I, "what air you up to? I ain't one of them men. Stop!"

After much labor I succeeded in unloosening her hold and sit her down on a chair. I judged from her conduct that she stood in need of a few moral observations.

"You air an impulsive femail," said I, "Yoor nature is at once spontaneous an' out-breakin.' You need a pair of martingals. Consider what would be yoor state ef a man's wife was to catch you huggin' him in this style."

She wiped her face with her dress. I forgot to mention this fact in speakin' of her spectacles.

"I am a worker in the caws of Women's Rights."

"Yes," said I, "you air. You ought to be ashamed of yourself. I should judge you were one of the lobby women that the Chicago Tribune correspondent tells of. But you can't come nefarious arts over me. I am sealed against 'em"

"I should be pleased," she said "to go arm in arm with you to the poles."

"No you don't," said I, in alarm; "not ef I have anything to say in the matter. I won't go with yoo—not a single darned pole."

"Young man," said she, "hast thou children?"

"I hev," said I, "seven of 'em. Can you show as good a record?"

"Would you," said she, "have your girls grow up and be married to base, sordid men who would take away their political rites and allow 'em no franchises?"

"Darn the franchises," says I, in a rage, "they are the things that women put on behind to give them the Grecian bend. Ef my daughters ever go to wearin' 'em—"

"No, no," said she, they are panier."

"Well" said I, "panniers or franchises whatever you call 'em, I am opposed to 'em. They are onnatural and humty. They degrade the human form into the likeness of a camel and bring lovely women down on all fours like a cat."

"Then said she, "come with me, and we will emancipate women from the slavery of dress."

"No," said I with severity, "I have no wish to take the close away from any woman. Wimmin without close would be a sad spectacle, particularly in winter, when the howling blasts prevail. Who are you, anyway?" I asked my visitor.

"I am a pilgrim," she said, "I belong to the Agitator, a noospaper devoted to the caws of femail suffrage in Chicago."

"Well," said I, calmly, "the wimmin in Chicago need something of this sort. Where them that are married never no on goin' to bed at night but what on wakin' up in the mornin' that they may be divorced, and them that ain't married spend their time in bettin' how many times they can be married and divorced within a month. The wimmin of Chicago need agitatin' powerfully. Keep a stirrin' on 'em up, if you please. The more you agitate the better for 'em."

With these words I arose, and tellin' her to set still with my return, I stole softlydown stairs. I have not been back since. What will be the effect of leavin' a femail agitator sittin' in my seat the whole of this time, I know not, but if she waits until I go back her patience will be of cast iron.

LOAFERS AND LABORERS.

The United States Government owes its protection to those who labor.

Yet it protects only loafers. A laborer is one who labors. A man or woman who is busy doing something for self-support and the benefit of others. The poor woman with her needle-pricked fingers and eyes red from over-work is a laborer, and she protects the Government. The needle she uses, the light she sews by, the thread she sews with, the room she lives in, the money she earns, is taxed.

The poor woman in the country who milks, washes, cooks, irons, sweeps, scrubs, makes and mends—working like a slave from day to day—is helping protect the Government. She toils to help pay taxes—she grows old prematurely—her girlish beauty is sweat out—her agile form grows stiff and awkward, for her life is one of labor. She works to protect the Government.

A man follows the plow- the harrow—the seed-drill—the reaper and mower. He swings the ax, with sturdy arm, throwing enterprise into the wilderness. He drills the rock, digs into mountains, explores rivers, labors in mines, pioneers his way to the West and to wealth. He drives a stage, swings a sledge, shoes a horse, makes a coat, paints a picture, prints a paper, invents and makes machinery, builds a house, lays out a town, erects a church, a school, or block of stores; picks rags, carries bundles, blacks boots, sets type, preaches sermons, amputates limbs, pulls teeth, paves streets, raises cattle, makes railroads, carries a musket, pays taxes.

He lives by the labor of his hands or his brains. He is a workingman, aiding to make the country great, paying taxes—for what?

To protect the Government.

To protect loafers.

To protect bondholders who pay no taxes.

He protects the Government—the Government robs the workingman to to protect the loafer.

Who is the workingman?

A man who works with hand and brain to live by his own labor.

Who is the loafer.

Any man who lives other than by labor, who shirks honest toil of brain or muscle, and fastens himself like a leech to the earning of others. The bondholder is a loafer. He lives on interest stolen from the people. He lives on the losses of others. He is as much a loafer as the seedy dead-beat who stands in saloons waiting for others to ask him to drink.

He is a robber, for he takes that he has not earned.

He is a shirk, for he throws the burdens of life on the shoulders of others.

He is a coward, for he runs behind the law with his stolen plunder, asks for protection, and from his retreat reaches out to rob the workingman of his earnings, and with long, crooked claws reaches into the womb of the future to rob the unborn.

He is a drone, for he adds nothing to the revenue, builds no houses, makes no cities, improves no lands, nor benefits the world.

He is a tyrant, for he rides rough shod over labor, and snatches from the poor the tax on tea, coffee, cloths, furniture, bread, medicines, shrouds, and coffins—everything to make up the gold he calls for and receives as interest on his untaxed bonds.

The workingman is our friend and we would see him protected.

The loafer is our enemy. The loafer is a bondholder—the bondholder is a loafer who is protected by the Government, and we depise him, and the rotten laws which protect him at the expense of labor.

We like honest men.

We hate thieves.

The man who robs of others is a thief.

The bondholder robs other.

Where in GOD'S law is it given in charge for us to toil to benefit others who will not work? And why should we rob our homes—our loved ones—our children—to enrich that cowardly aristocracy that has by its own laws exempted itself from taxation?—Pomeroy's Democrat.

A Missouri lady hung herself because her husband went to California. There are a good many willing to do that same thing because their husbands won't go to California—or somewhere.

The Radical press of Virginia call colored men "niggers" since the election. That's a mild retaliation upon the colored gentlemen for so thoroughly thrashing the Radicals.

A STRANGE METAMORPHOSIS.

The Terre Haute (Ind.) Journal tells this highly veracious story:

A few nights since the residence of a prominent citizen was entered by a burglar, and some valuable jewelry and other property stolen and carried away. But before leaving the house, it appears he paid a visit to nearly every apartment in it. Traces of him were found about and below stairs; wherever, indeed, it was probable any valuables could be obtained. It so happened that one member of the family belonged to that much abused and very excellent class of society called "old maids." She is a free-hearted, generous lady, intelligent and refined, and the only fear that her well-balanced mind had ever known, is the apprehension that in some evil hour Satan will lure her affections into the keeping of that abomination of her mind, a man. The good lady prays every day that no such evil may befall her, and that she may live and die in maiden meditation fancy free. Now, whether the burglar knew this peculiarity of the lady's mind or not, he at all events determined to play her a very practical joke. To this end he carefully removed from the chair on which she had neatly folded and laid it, all her wearing apparel, and substituted, from another room, a complete suit of gentleman's clothes. Then taking off a huge pair of false whiskers, he carefully adjusted them to the face of the sleeping lady. Of course he could not wait to see the denouement, but that pleasure was reserved for the family the next morning. Awakening at an early hour, the good lady proceeded to the mirror (an invariable practice with ladies) to enjoy a look at her face. The first glance petrified her with horror. Was she indeed a man? The latent superstition of her nature reviving, she imagined that Satan had been playing her a horrible revenge for her animosity to the male creation. She staggered to a chair, and, almost broken-hearted, concluded to dress and send for a barber. But now she noticed for the first time that her clothes, too, were gone, and a gentleman's outfit was substituted in their stead. She was certain now that the metamorphosis was complete, and, resigning herself to the situation, tried to don the apparel. But having no experience in the adjustment of this new-fangled apparel, and habit being stronger than instinct, she found that every time she put the pantaloons over her head, she encountered an impediment that defied all her efforts to overcome. In short, the pants would not go over her head. At last, in despair, she rang for assistance, and, her maid appearing at the door, she cried out:

"Don't come in, Betty, for I'm a man now: but just please step in and ask brother if he usually puts his breeches on over head, or commences feet foremost."

It is needless to say the message astonished the household. It was some time before the lady would admit to her appartments any one of either sex, for fear she might make a mistake; but finally one more adventurous than the rest pushed open the door, and convinced the sorely tried maid that she had not forsaken her estate, but was yet one of the angels of earth.

One night General —— was out on the line in Georgia, and observed a light on the mountain opposite.—Thinking it was a signal light of the enemy, he remarked to his artillery officers that a hole could easily be put through it; whereupon the officer turning to the corporal in charge of the gun, said:

"Corporal do you see that light?"

'Yes, sir.'

'Put a hole through it.' ordered the captain.

The corporal sighted the gun, and when all was ready he looked up and said:

'Captain that's the moon.'

'Don't care for that,' was the captain's steady response; 'put a hole through it anyhow!'

FOR THE CAMPAIGN!

RALLY IN YOUR MIGHT!

Read, Think and Act!

Our appeal is to the intelligent, the candid and the independent. We ask only that people shall understand the issues before them, and that, understanding them, they reflect upon their duty in the premises and then discharge what they believe to be that duty when they come to cast their ballots. In order that the questions to be voted upon at the coming election, may be fairly and fully presented to the public, the BEDFORD GAZETTE will be furnished for the campaign, at the following low rates:

One copy	$0.50
Three copies	1.20
Five copies	1.75
Ten copies	3.00
Twenty copies	5.00

In all cases the cash must accompany the order. We respectfully ask the active men of our party to get up clubs for the campaign at every post-office in the county. In no other way can the good cause be more effectively supported than by the circulation of Democratic newspapers. It ought to be an easy matter to raise a club of twenty at any post office. Address MEYERS & MENGEL, Bedford, Pa.

GEARY'S PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Congress, known as the Fifteenth Amendment.—Radical Platform adopted at Philadelphia, June 24, 1869.—See Bedford Inquirer of July 2.

THE TEST OATH IN VIRGINIA.

Does there remain among radicals the smallest modicum of decency, the faintest resemblance of honesty, the dullest sense of shame? This question is particularly suggested by the course pursued by the federal administration toward Virginia.

It will be recollected that President Grant, in ordering the election in that State, allowed a separate vote on the test oath and disfranchisement clauses of the Underwood constitution, in order that the people might have an opportunity to strike them out of that instrument, if they so willed. The election was held and these odious features were expunged from the constitution by an overwhelming majority, even the Wells party professing opposition to their retention.

But the will of the people of Virginia, expressed according to the forms provided by the reconstruction acts and President Grant, is about to be set at naught. The test oath, defeated at the election by permission of Congress and the President, is to be enforced in the qualification of the newly elected members of the legislature. The Virginians, white and black, have voted it down, but Boutwell, Cresswell and company have determined to annul the popular decision. A large majority of the legislature is composed of adherents of Walker, the newly elected Governor. They do not belong to the proscriptive faction of which Boutwell, Cresswell & Co. are the exponents in the cabinet. Hence the dead and buried test-oath with all its loathsomeness and stench, is to be exhumed and forced down the throats of these Virginia legislators. The only alternative left them is to refuse to take it, and suffer their seats to be occupied by their defeated opponents. Of course they will prefer to accept this alternative, which is precisely what their enemies hope and expect. A more convenient and effective plan to get rid of an adverse majority in a representative body, could hardly be devised. As to its morality, fairness and decency, some scrupulous people may entertain serious doubt. But Boutwell, Cresswell and company throw ethics to the devil and look only to results.

Meanwhile it is clearly understood that President Grant disapproved the test oath and disfranchisement clauses of the Underwood constitution, and submitted them separately at the late election, knowing that they would be defeated. It is also well known that he opposes the application of the test oath in the qualification of members of the newly elected legislature. He regards it, as every intelligent man must regard it, as undoing all that has been done toward the restoration of Virginia. The question, therefore, arises, Will he permit himself to be overruled by the extremists in his cabinet? If yes, then he is totally unfit to be President and merits the contempt and scorn of honest and right-thinking men of all parties. His own plan of reconstruction has been faithfully carried out in Virginia. Will he strangle his own child, and if so, is there enough independence left among "republicans" to protest against the murder?

A Startling Fact!!

UPWARDS OF SEVEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS DISAPPEAR FROM THE STATE TREASURY IN TWO YEARS!!

Who are the Thieves?

The Harrisburg Patriot makes the charge that during the fiscal years 1867 and 1868, upwards of Seven Millions of Dollars were squandered by the State government in appropriations outside of those made for payments on the State Debt. The reports of the Auditor General for 1867 and 1868, taken in connection with the statements contained in the last annual message of Governor Geary, developed the astounding fact that during the last two years upwards of Eleven Millions of Dollars have been taken from the State Treasury, only Four Millions of which have been applied in payments on the State debt, leaving Seven Millions to be accounted for in appropriations for the current expenses of the Commonwealth, interest on the State Debt, and other expenditures.

At the end of the fiscal year of 1866, there remained in the Treasury.	$1,741,033.27.
During the fiscal year of 1867 the receipts at the Treasury, exclusive of the State loans, amounted to	5,423,330.07
During the fiscal year of 1868 the receipts at the Treasury were	5,216,049.55
Receipts in two years	$12,380,412.89
Balance in the Treasury at the end of last fiscal year, Nov. 30, 1868	1,012,925.37
Taken out of Treasury in two years	$11,367,487.52

These figures are taken from the reports of the Auditor General for 1867 and 1868, and the reader is referred to those documents for verification of them. From these statements the fact appears that Eleven Millions, Three Hundred and Sixty-seven Thousand Four Hundred and Eighty-seven Dollars were taken from the treasury during the fiscal years of 1867 and 1868. In Governor Geary's last Annual Message, transmitted to the legislature, January 6, 1869, is found the following:

"By report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the year ending September 3, 1867, the loans redeemed amounted to $1,794,569.50, and by their report from September 3, 1867 to November 30, 1868 'the loans redeemed' amounted to $2,414,815.64, making a total reduction of the State debt, in two years and three months, of $4,209,386.14."

By the Auditor General's reports, we have learned that the sum taken out of the Treasury during the two years of 1867 and 1868 was	$11,367,487.52
By Geary's message we ascertain that the whole amount of the State Debt paid off during a period of two years and three months anterior to Nov. 30, 1868, was	4,209,386.14
Leaving for current expenses, &c.	$7,158,101.38

It now remains for the defenders of Governor Geary's administration to show what became of the seven milloins and upwards remaining in the Treasury after the payments made on the State Debt. How much of this sum was wasted in extravagant appropriations? How much of it was squandered in increased rates of interest on the State Debt? How much of it was given to radical State officials and a radical legislature, in the shape of increased salaries? How much of it was stolen by radical pasters and folders and other officials of the legislature who did not render a day's service to the Commonwealth? And let it also be explained how it comes that upwards of One Million Dollars are permitted to lie useless and dead in the Treasury, when that sum might be applied to a further reduction of the State Debt and the saving of a large amount of interest to the taxpayers of the State. What has become of the seven millions? Who gets the interest on the One Million?—Where does the money go and who are the thieves?

ONE MILLION OF DOLLARS and upwards of the funds of the Commonwealth are now in the hands of a private individual and converted to his use, and this the radical journals dare not deny. Is an administration to be re-elected which deals in this manner with the people's money.

RADICALISM ROUTED!

Tennesssee Delivered from the Thraldom of Radical Oppression!

THE FREEMEN OF THAT STATE ONCE MORE PERMITTED TO SPEAK!

A WATERLOO DISASTER TO THE RADICALS!

LET US HAVE PEACE!

Close upon the heels of the disastrous defeat of proscriptive Radicalism in Virginia, follows the almost total wiping out of that party in Tennessee. The whole weight of the administration at Washington was used to bolster up the waning cause of the party in that state and to defeat the Senter movement headed by Andy Johnson. The result is before us. Senter, the candidate of the Conservatives and Democrats has been elected by a majority of over 65,000! The Legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic! This secures a Democratic United States Senator from a state that has so long been groaning and agonizing under the iron rule of radicalism. The result is most gratifying to all who are longing for a deliverance from the intolerance and oppression which characterizes the party now in power.

Freemen of Pennsylvania! Let us rejoice in the fact that the end of radicalism draweth near in this country! And above all, let us do our part towards achieving the great victory in our state, which is assuredly in store for us.

GRANT has been "swinging around the circle" to an alarming extent. When Johnson left the White House for a little trip, all the radical pack set up a hideous howl. Now their junketing President can travel from one watering place to another at expensive government transportation, fare sumptuously with his office-holders, receive presents of fast horses, valuable town lots, fancy bull pups, ad finitum, and these same howlers are as dumb "as an oyster." But, then, Grant is none of your common fellows and must be feted to suit his fancy. Great President!

THE York Press says Wm. McCandless, an active Radical politician of that borough, has come out squarely for Packer. Mr. McCandless has always been opposed to the Democratic party heretofore, and is a man of considerable influence. The Press says there are hundreds of honest Republicans in the county who will not touch Geary. Look out for thunder from old York.

The whole power of Grant's Cabinet was thrown in the scale in favor of Stokes, in Tennessee, but as those members are only "light weights," it effected nothing. Andy Johnson stepped into the other side and sent Boutwell, Cresswell & Co., bounding into the air. They received a shock from which they are not likely soon to recover. Poor fellows!

The partial eclipse of the sun on Saturday last was preceded by the total eclipse of the "shining lights" of radicalism in Tennessee. The latter could easily be seen without the aid of smoked glass, although no radical, hereabouts, had heart enough to look in that direction at all.

GEARY might have vetoed the iniquitous acts of the last legislature and saved the people taxes, but he didn't. Is he to be re-elected in order that the "Ring" at Harrisburg may continue to have a supple tool in the Executive chair?

THE LISTS of voters are to be posted up by the Assessors on the doors of the election-houses of the several districts. Let democrats look at these lists and see that every democratic voter is registered. Attend to this matter at once.

GEARY sold the Lycoming Judicial District to Peter Herdic, in order to get the delegates to the radical State Convention from Lycoming county. Is such a man to disgrace the gubernatorial chair three years longer?

SEVEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS appropriated in two years under Geary's administration for expenses of the State government, etc., etc. Think of that, taxpayers, and groan!

RADICALISM is receiving heavy blows everywhere. Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Montana have spoken in tones of thunder against the radical party. Now, for Pennsylvania!

GEN. ROSECRANS declines the democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio, on the ground that he is no longer a citizen of the State, and regrets that this fact precludes him from leading the democracy of Ohio in the coming canvass.

GRANT is still dealing out offices to his favorites. The last instance is the appointment of his negro barber to a first-class clerkship. We expect a good barber has been spoiled to make a very poor clerk.

DEMOCRATIC victory in Montana!—Hon. J. M. Cavanaugh has been elected delegate to Congress by over two thousand majority. This is double what it was last year.

TENNESSEE is a naughty State. She has elected Senter by an immense majority, and sent Boutwell and other Administration advisers through a small "hole in the sky." Let us have peace!

ALABAMA, by the grace of Grant, held an election and more than doubled her democratic vote of last year. Four out of the six Congressmen are Democrats.

Of eight apprentices appointed to the Government Printing Office at Washington, the other day, two were colored and six "plain." "John Brown's body—sing, bruddern!"

A PACKER of experience will salt down the Radical party in October. The brine will be procured at the head waters of Salt River, to which place the Radical herd will be transported on election day.

Senter, the Conservative candidate for Governor of Tennessee, ran far ahead of Stokes the radical candidate. He is, therefore, properly, a-Head S(C)enter.

BOUTWELL looked through that "hole in the sky" for the returns of the Tennessee election. He was disgusted in a very short time.

THE friends of Andrew Johnson claim that he will be elected United States Senator from Tennessee.

Tennessee has made a Senter shot.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

Letters received in Washington from Cuban leaders state that the insurgents have captured and hold as hostages a sufficient number of Spanish prisoners to prevent the instant execution of captives, which has heretofore been the policy of the Spaniards. Communications between Puerto Principe and the coast has been entirely cut off by General Quesada, and also telegraphic communications with Havana. In attempting to open communications, General Letona, the Spanish commander has suffered heavy losses on several occasions. His whole available force is estimated at four thousand men, while that of the Cuban General is reported to be nearly nine thousand. A number of minor contests are mentioned, in which the Spaniards were repulsed with great slaughter. At Villa Rica they are said to have lost over two hundred men, and in a fight near Trinidad, eighty-five killed and wounded and three hundred prisoners. Gen. Jordan reports himself and troops in excellent condition.

Spain will now have a taste of Grant's neutrality policy. All the gunboats which have been fitted out in this country are to be siezed. Eight were taken possession of by Marshal Barlow at New York. Deputies were sent to Greenpoint, Long Island, to sieze seven more, and officers were also despatched to Mystic, Connecticut, to lay hold of fifteen others. The vessels have been seized upon information that they were intended to be used against Peru, and were to have guns sent on board before leaving, in violation of the neutrality laws.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—The enterprising publisher of this popular Magazine is the first in the field in announcing, among the inducements to subscribers for the coming year, the finest premium yet ever offered for a single subscription to any magazine in this or any other country. It consists of a copy, retailed at ten dollars, of Mrs. Lilly M. Spencer's great picture of a "Pic-nic on The Fourth of July," the engraving of which artists were sent for, specially from Europe, to complete.

Demorest's Monthly is in itself by far the most complete and attractive Magazine for ladies published in this country, and requires little extra inducement to persuade them to become subscribers. It is really a saving of money, however, to pay three dollars, and get in addition so valuable a premium—and Mr. Demorest will undoubtedly find his list doubled on the strength of it. Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This excellent little periodical is constantly adding to its reputation, and is certainly the most sensible, practical, and best edited of all the juvenile magazines. SPECIAL NOTICES.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver Complaint is one of the most prominent cause of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation, and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

Come forward, friends, just now is the accepted time, and send at once the amount you owe us and you will receive the printer's blessing. We stand greatly in need of the money you owe us, as we must pay our paper bills, &c., in cash, (and they are not small like the bills due us for the paper), and unless our patrons pay us punctually, we must borrow the money to enable us to send them the GAZETTE.—Come, roll in, tumble in, and don't be afraid to pay the printer. especially you who are indebted to us from 'laug65,' '13oct65,' 'laug66,' 'laug67,' and other 'ancient' dates.

THE ECLIPSE.—Next to the great "spook" excitement, nothing received so much attention here as the eclipse on Saturday last. More of our people were observed casting their eyes heavenward, than are generally supposed to be gazing to that celestial place. Those who were unaccustomed to peering into the blue ethereal had to be assisted by something to aid the vision. Smoked glass was in active demand, and the supply seemed unlimited. We noticed one enthusiastic youth, in his eagerness to catch a glimpse of the eclipse, smash a large window pane, and attempt to smoke one of the fragments with the "pipe of peace," another tried to view the phenomenon of nature by the "light of other days;" and a third insisted he could see the eclipse by placing a basin of water on the ground. We record all these as complete failures. Smoked glass, after all, was the only thing through which to behold the be-clouded disc of the day's luminary.

The eclipse was a complete success, and reflects great credit on those knowing chaps who for some time past have been pointing to the exact time when it would make its appearance. 'Tis sad to reflect, however, that a great many who looked upon it on Saturday last will never more behold such a sight, for we are told that no eclipse of the sun will again occur during the present century.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new counterfeit ten dollar greenback has made its appearance, and is pronounced by bankers and United States treasurers the finest executed counterfeit ever thrown upon the community. At first glance it seems to be a perfect imitation of the $10 greenback, and the printing seems to have been done from the original plate, but there are points of difference which are thus noted:—In the original the shading around the 10 in the medallion appears like a fine network, and runs close up to the figures. In the counterfeit note this shading is "picked up," and becomes coarse as it reaches the figures, forming a light streak or a circular haze similar to that about the moon before rain. There is no haze in the genuine note. This is a slight point for detection. A clearer one is the fact that in the original notes, within the light circle running under the figures 10, there are three and a third dots on the left of the figure 1. In the counterfeit bill the one third dot ismissing. But an infallible mark of distinction is found under the left wing of the eagle. In the genuine notes are four distinct rows of feathers under thewing. In the counterfeit these rows of feathers are undefined, and this seems to be the only weak spot in the whole engraving. The public will do well to exercise caution in receiving notes of this denomination.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We are pained to record the sudden death of Dr. John Morrison, on Wednesday morning last, at his residence in this borough. The Doctor was a native of this borough, was aged about seventy-two years, and was extensively and favorably known throughout the State as an intelligent, urbane gentleman of the old school. His disease was apoplexy. He has been in feeble health for several years, and only returned last week from his annual visit to Bedford Springs, apparently greatly improved in health and vigor of body. On Tuesday evening last we conversed with him, when he appeared cheerful. On Wednesday morning he was seized with apoplexy, and in a short time was a corpse. He was in affluent circumstances, and unmarried.—Greensburg Argus.

Dr. Morrison was well known in this community, having been a regular summer visitor for a number of years. He was highly esteemed and beloved by all who knew him, and his sudden death is deeply regretted by many with whom he associated but a few days ago, in Bedford. May his ashes rest in peace.'

GOOD ADVICE.—Let our possessions be what they may—marble palaces, broad lands, magnificent plate, or caskets of "precious stones"—they all sink in the balance against Heaven's great boon, health, and they cannot be enjoyed without it. And yet how little is it valued, and how carelessly preserved. The laws of nature cannot be violated with impunity. Night revelry, luxurious living, irregularity of meals, and a disordered appetite, will gradually destroy the power and activity of the stomach. How many ladies and gentlemen eat and drink disease at late suppers, and arise in the morning with headache, loss of appetite, feeling languid and unrefreshed. There can be no medical remedy that will turn lead into food, or poisoned drinks into nutriment, but medical science can assist nature, supply exhausted fluids, and to a great extent correct the effects of disease. In all cases such as the above, we recommend PLANTATION BITTERS. You will find them just the thing—at the same time a most delicious tonic and appetizer.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA.—One of the most destructive fires that ever visited Philadelphia, took place in that city on Wednesday night last. It began with the falling in of one of the bonded warehouses at Front and Lombard streets. The building was stored with whisky, which ran into the furnaces of the boilers, and caught fire, producing an explosion. The entire block of warehouses, eight in number, were destroyed. Some twenty-five thousand barrels of whisky were stored in the building. The loss is about three and a half million dollars, upon which there is an insurance of one million and a half.

DIED.

TODD—In Bedford township, this county, July 31st, 1869, Mrs. M Elizabeth Todd, wife of William Todd, Esq., aged 75 years, 8 months and 18 days. Her last illness was brief; though her general health had been failing for some years past. She was a communicant in the Presbyterian church of Bedford for more than 30 years. Her conduct and conversation were ordered in accordance with the gospel of the son of God. Her piety was seen in an humble meek and unobtrusive demeanor. Those who knew her at home and among her immediate neighbors and friends saw most of Christ in her life. Later years of infirmity detained her from the public sanctuary. She made the word of God her daily and constant study at home. She grew by these means, in the grace of God and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Though death came measurably sudden, she was, nevertheless, ready, her peace being made with God, her calling and election were sure. For her to live was Christ and to die was infinite gain. Her husband, now in his 81st year after having companioned with her in wedded life for near 3 score years, lingers on earth, awaiting his release from mortality that he may enter heaven, and enjoy with her the rest of the people of God. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. She was a kind friend to the poor; an affectionate relative, an amiable and beloved companion. A son and daughter with their respective families, together with her husband, a brother and sister and many other friends mourn her loss, but, not without good hope.

COLBURN'S PATENT

RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

DODD'S
NERVINE
DID IT.

NEW LONDON, CONN., April 26, 1869.
REMEMBERED FRIEND—I thought it well to wait another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have been doing for some time, under the treatment of the new medicine, and I am happy to tell you when you that I am getting better—even faster than when you were here. I commenced the use of DODD'S NERVINE without anybody advising me to it. When I began with it I could only walk from my bed to the chair. My trouble has been extreme pain in the head, and has lasted over three years. All the medicine I have heretofore taken has failed to give any relief. I am now able to go up and down stairs, and daily improving. I consider the NERVINE the best medicine I ever found, and shall continue its use, for I am confident of entire recovery. I have taken only three bottles, and would not be without it on any account.
Very truly, MRS. I. S. NUTE.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Phisical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

LET EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD
READ THIS!

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.

On and after the first day of June, 1869, I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect present accounts.

All goods will be sold at about one-half the profit now pa'd by consumers. The people often complain of Bedford prices being higher than elsewhere, and it is doubtless true, to some extent, for the reason that good customers have had to pay for others' goods with an additional profit on their own.

Let an intelligent community sustain me in this enterprise and they WILL SAVE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. ON EVERYTHING THEY CONSUME. may14m3 H. F. IRVINE.

NOTICE.—All accounts not settled by the first day of June, 1869, either by cash or note, will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Friends will please take notice, and by so doing will save trouble and costs.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
